For eligible active* Employees, Main Entrance Pass Guest Admissions and complimentary ticket distribution are determined by the number of eligible dependents for Company events and tickets claimed by each eligible Employee.

- Eligible Employees receive a minimum of three (3) Main Entrance Pass Guest Admissions.

- If an Employee has more than three (3) eligible dependents for Company events and tickets, the Employee is responsible for updating dependent information in order to add each eligible dependent.
- Audits and verification may be requested at any time to verify dependent accuracy.
- Children under the age of three (3) do not need admission media to enter any U.S.-based Disney Theme Park.
 - Children under the age of three (3) are not considered eligible dependents as they do not require admission media to enjoy U.S.-based Disney Theme Parks.
 - Children, stepchildren, adopted children, temporary custody children and/or foster children of the Employee and/or spouse/domestic partner will be ineligible prior to their third birthday and upon their 19th birthday.

Updating Eligible Dependents for Company Events and Tickets

- If the eligible Employee has more than three (3) eligible dependents for Company events and tickets, the Employee is responsible for updating dependent information in order to add each eligible dependent.
- Eligible dependent information may be updated in D Tools HR or by contacting your local HR Business Partner.

Regular Full Time and Regular Part Time Employees

Self-Admission Privileges (U.S.- based Employees only)

Eligible U.S.-based Regular Full Time and Regular Part Time Employees (hereafter referred to in this Self-Admission Privileges Section as “U.S.-based Employees”) have access to visit the U.S.-based Disney Theme Parks. Self-admission privileges allow U.S.-based Employees to visit U.S.-based Disney Theme Parks.

- U.S.-based Employees must be prepared to show their valid Company-issued ID when using their Self-Admission privileges.
- Self-admission privileges at U.S.-based theme parks do not count towards total Main Entrance Pass uses for the year.

Self-Admission privileges only apply at:

- Walt Disney World® Resort Theme Parks: Disney's Animal Kingdom® Theme Park, Disney's Hollywood Studios®, EPCOT®, Magic Kingdom® Park
- Disneyland® Resort Theme Parks: Disney California Adventure® Park, Disneyland® Park

Self-Admission privileges do not apply at:

- Disney Theme Parks based outside of the U.S.
- Disney's Blizzard Beach® Water Park, Disney's Typhoon Lagoon Water Park
- Fantasia Gardens Miniature Golf Course, Disney's Winter Summerland Miniature Golf Course

Restrictions

Eligible Disney Employees must obtain a reservation for theme park entry in advance. However, for Walt Disney World® Resort, select good-to-go dates may not require a park reservation. View information on Disneyworld.com/parkreservations, when available. We encourage you to plan your reservation early. Even after park capacities are no longer limited by the impact of Covid-19 on park operations, there will be particular limits on the number of reservations available for Self-Admission. Self-Admission is subject to block-out dates which may be changed from time to time, and theme park reservations may not be made on blocked-out dates. For a current listing of Disney Theme Park block-out dates, please visit: blockoutdates.disney.com.

- To enter a theme park using Self-Admission, both a park reservation for the particular theme park and day and the Self-Admission pass or ticket are required. The Self-Admission pass or ticket that was used to make the theme park reservation must be used for park entry. Disney may elect to suspend, modify or cancel admission privileges of the pass or ticket and theme park reservations due to park closures, attendance limitations or otherwise. Theme park reservations and admission are subject to the applicable terms and conditions and are not guaranteed.
- At Walt Disney World® Resort in Florida, after you have made a theme park reservation for the first park you plan to visit and enter that first park, you will be able to visit the next park at a designated time later in the day (as stated on <https://disneyworld.disney.go.com/guest-services/park-hopper/>). The ability to visit a park is subject to the park's capacity limitations. At this time a park reservation is not required after the first park, however, reservation requirements are subject to change.
- Park Hopper® privileges at the Disneyland® Resort are subject to restrictions and valid theme park reservations, and are not guaranteed. View details at <https://disneyland.disney.go.com/guest-services/park-hopper/>.
- Self-Admission is only valid during regular park operating hours, and is not valid for events requiring separate admission, including, but not limited to, special events and private parties. Parks, attractions or entertainment may change operating hours, close due to refurbishing, low demand, capacity, weather, special events or other reasons, and may otherwise change or be discontinued without notice and without liability. Furthermore, certain attractions, experiences, services, offerings, and amenities may be modified or unavailable, limited in capacity, and subject to limited availability or even closure. Park admission and offerings are not guaranteed.

- Self-Admission privileges may not be purchased, sold, used for commercial purposes, bartered or exchanged for anything of value, including, but not limited to: cash, gift cards, meals, other theme park tickets, gas, or as a prize or incentive. Solicitation to engage in such activity is also prohibited. Violations of Self-Admission usage guidelines may result in loss of the privilege as well as disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
- Self-Admission is valid for one (1) day of admission to the theme parks at either Disneyland® Resort OR Walt Disney World® Resort, subject to valid theme park reservations.
- Self-Admission Passes are not valid for admission to the theme parks at Disneyland® Paris, Shanghai Disneyland, Tokyo Disney Resort in Japan, and are not valid for admission to any water parks.
- Disney is not responsible for lost or stolen tickets or property.
- Entry constitutes consent for Disney to use any film, video or likeness of bearer for any purpose whatsoever, without payment to the bearer.
- Self-Admission privileges are non-transferable. They are a privilege extended only to the person whose name appears on the pass.
- Biometric, photo, or other valid confirmation required for same day readmission to same park, and if applicable, crossover to the other parks.
- It is agreed between owners of the parks and ticket users that all claims for injury or loss arising incident to presence on owners' property shall be litigated in the state and county where the incident occurred under the law of such state or, if the incident occurred outside of the United States, in the jurisdiction where the incident occurred under the law of such jurisdiction.
- Self-Admission privileges may not be used by an Employee on any day that such Employee calls in sick or for personal time for their scheduled shift.

Main Entrance Pass

The Main Entrance Pass allows eligible Regular Full Time and Regular Part Time Employees to visit Disney Theme Parks with Guest(s). Eligible Employees include U.S.-based Employees, and Employees who are based outside the U.S. and not statused to Walt Disney Parks & Resorts.

Privileges

Employee and Eligible Dependents for Company Events and Tickets	Main Entrance Pass Privileges
Single Employee + 0 to 3 eligible dependents	Main Entrance Pass + 3 Main Entrance Guest Admissions
Single Employee + 4 or more eligible dependents	Main Entrance Pass + Main Entrance Guest Admission per eligible dependent
Employee + spouse/domestic partner + 0 to 3 additional eligible dependents	Main Entrance Pass + Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass + 3 Main Entrance Guest Admissions
Employee + spouse/domestic partner + 4 or more eligible dependents	Main Entrance Pass + Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass + Main Entrance Guest Admission per eligible dependent

Each day that the Employee Main Entrance Pass or Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass is used to admit Guest(s) counts as one (1) use toward the total number of annual uses.

The number of Guest(s) an Employee can admit into an eligible Disney Theme Park is based on the total number of eligible dependents for Company events and tickets in the system of record (SAP).

- Eligible Employees receive a minimum of three (3) Main Entrance Guest Admissions.
- If the Employee has more than three (3) eligible dependents, the Employee may be permitted to admit more than three (3) Guests at a time. Please note that Guests under the age of three (3) do not require an admission ticket to enter a Disney Theme Park.
- See “Dependent Eligibility” section for more detail.
- Eligible Employees of the Company may have only one active Main Entrance Pass (an individual Main Entrance Pass or a Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass) assigned to them at a time. An Employee that has a spouse/domestic partner employed at the Company, may not receive and use their spouse/domestic partner’s Main Entrance Pass in addition to their own. However, if their spouse/domestic partner has a higher Main Entrance Pass benefit, an Employee may choose to forgo their own Pass and receive only a Spouse/Domestic Partner Main Entrance Pass.

*Main Entrance Guest Admissions are based on the number of eligible dependents listed in SAP for Company events and tickets. Eligible Regular Full Time and Regular Part Time Employees receive a minimum of three (3) admissions. See the Dependent Eligibility section for more detail.

Admission into the theme parks at Disneyland® Paris are limited to 15 times per year. Admission into Hong Kong Disneyland Park is limited to 12 times per year. Admission into Shanghai Disneyland Park is limited to 12 times per year.*

- Please note that Main Entrance Pass (Silver) and Main Entrance Pass 16 Admit (Blue) refer to the type of pass, not the color of the pass. All Main Entrance Passes are dark blue in color. The pass type is indicated on the back of the pass below the Employee/spouse/domestic partner's name.
- To view Main Entrance Pass usage, visit CompAdmission.Disney.com.

Restrictions

Main Entrance Passholders must obtain a reservation for theme park entry in advance*. However, for Walt Disney World® Resort, select good-to-go dates may not require a park reservation. View information on Disneyworld.com/parkreservations, when available. We encourage you to plan your reservation early. Even after park capacities are no longer limited by the impact of Covid-19 on park operations, there will be particular limits on the number of reservations available for Main Entrance Passes. Main Entrance Passes are subject to block-out dates which may be changed from time to time, and theme park reservations may not be made on blocked-out dates. There are currently no block-out dates at Disneyland® Resort, and theme park admission is based on park reservation availability. For a current listing of Disney Theme Park block-out dates, please visit: blockoutdates.disney.com.

- To enter a Disney theme park with a Main Entrance Pass, both a park reservation* for the particular theme park and day and the Main Entrance Pass (and if applicable, Guest Pass(es)) are required (except for Disneyland® Paris where one single reservation is valid for both Disneyland® Park and Walt Disney Studios® Park). The Main Entrance Pass that was used to make the theme park reservation must be used for park entry. Disney may elect to suspend, modify or cancel admission privileges of the pass and theme park reservations due to park closures, attendance limitations or otherwise. Theme park reservations and admission are subject to the applicable terms and conditions and are not guaranteed.

Disneyland*® Paris Theme Park reservations for Main Entrance Passes are secured on the day of visit at a Guest Relations window. Guest Relations will secure the passholder's Disneyland® Paris theme park reservation for the day and provide a ticket for theme park entry.

- At Walt Disney World® Resort in Florida, after you have made a theme park reservation for the first park you plan to visit and enter that first park, you will be able to visit the next park at a designated time later in the day (as stated on <https://disneyworld.disney.go.com/guest-services/park-hopper/>). The ability to visit a park is subject to the park's capacity limitations. At this time a park reservation is not required after the first park, however, reservation requirements are subject to change.
- Park Hopper® privileges at the Disneyland® Resort are subject to restrictions and valid theme park reservations and are not guaranteed. View details at <https://disneyland.disney.go.com/guest-services/park-hopper/>.
- Main Entrance Passes are only valid during regular park operating hours, and are not valid for events requiring separate admission, including, but not limited to, special events and private parties. Parks, attractions or entertainment may change operating hours, close due to refurbishing, low demand, capacity, weather, special events or other reasons, and may otherwise change or be discontinued without notice and without liability. Solicitation to engage in such activities is also prohibited. Violations of Main Entrance Pass usage guidelines may result in loss of the privilege as well as disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

- Main Entrance Passes and Guest Passes or Guest tickets (if applicable) may be used once per day and are valid for one (1) day of admission to the theme parks at either Disneyland® Resort, OR Walt Disney World® Resort, OR Disneyland Paris, OR Hong Kong Disneyland Park OR Shanghai Disneyland Park. Guest Passes or Guest tickets (as applicable) are non-transferable throughout a theme park visit, and each is limited to one (1) guest, per day.
- Main Entrance Passes are not valid for admission to the theme parks at Tokyo Disney Resort in Japan, and are not valid for admission to any water parks.
- Disney is not responsible for lost or stolen tickets or property.
- Entry constitutes consent for Disney to use any film, video or likeness of bearer for any purpose whatsoever, without payment to the bearer.
- Main Entrance Passes and Spouse/Domestic Partner Passes are non-transferable. They are a privilege extended only to the person whose name appears on the pass. Passholders may not, under any circumstances, allow anyone else to use their Main Entrance Pass or Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass.
- Asking other Passholders or offering to assist other Passholders in admitting Guest(s) into an eligible Disney Theme Park is strictly prohibited.
- Biometric, photo, or other valid confirmation required for same day readmission to same park, and if applicable, crossover to the other parks.
- For re-entry at Shanghai Disneyland Park, proof of identity is required. At the entrance of Shanghai Disneyland Park, a photo of bearer will be taken as proof of the bearer's identity as the ticket holder.
- It is agreed between owners of the parks and ticket users that all claims for injury or loss arising incident to presence on owners' property shall be litigated in the state and county where the incident occurred under the law of such state or, if the incident occurred outside of the United States, in the jurisdiction where the incident occurred under the law of such jurisdiction.
- An Employee may not use their Main Entrance Pass to admit Guests and enter a Disney Theme Park on any day that such Employee calls in sick or for personal time for their scheduled shift.

Guest Accompaniment

After initial entry into an eligible Disney Theme Park, the following Guest(s) who are family members of the Employee or the Employee's spouse/domestic partner (herein after referred to as "Family Member(s)") and are at least 14 years of age* are able to enjoy the parks unaccompanied by the Employee or the Employee's spouse/domestic partner:

- Children and children-in-law
- Parents and legal guardians

- Employees must present their valid Company-issued ID at time of transaction to receive their complimentary theme park merchandise discount.
- Complimentary theme park merchandise discount may also be applied to purchases made on shopDisney mobile app and shopDisney online at shopDisney.com. For the discount to be applied, you must create an account and provide your PERNR number.
- Spouses/domestic partners must present a valid Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass and a valid government-issued photo ID to receive their complimentary theme park merchandise discount.

Restrictions

- Main Entrance Guest Passes and complimentary tickets will not be honored for merchandise discounts.
- Employees or their spouses/domestic partners may not extend their complimentary theme park merchandise discount to others, including other Employees who receive different discounts. Asking another Employee and/or their spouse/domestic partner to extend a higher discount is also prohibited. Spouses/domestic partners receive the same discount as the Employee with their Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass.
- Complimentary theme park merchandise discounts are for Employees' and their spouses'/domestic partners' personal use only and may not be used to purchase theme park merchandise with the intent to resell, or to actually resell, for profit.
- Complimentary theme park merchandise discounts are subject to change at any time.
- If an Employee qualifies for two separate discounts for percentage off a purchase, the higher percentage discount may be applied to the purchase but multiple percentage discounts may not be combined.
- Some theme park merchandise offerings, including media (e.g., Blu-Ray, DVDs, CDs), have a lower standard discount. A higher discount may be also offered on select items or during select seasonal periods (e.g. Disney Family Holiday Celebration).
- Complimentary theme park merchandise discounts, as applicable, are not valid on: artist originals, select collectibles, gift cards, gift certificates, admission media, arcades, shipping or taxes, and on additional items or at other locations that may not be noted here.
- Employee complimentary theme park merchandise discounts are limited to $8,000 annually. This limit applies to the total merchandise discount amount received, and does not apply to resort reservations, theme park tickets or purchases made at food and beverage locations. This applies to all Employees, regardless of the merchandise discount they receive. This is a single limit inclusive of purchases made by both the Employee and their spouse/domestic partner.

U.S.- based Temporary/ Recurring Employees

Self-Admission Privileges (U.S.- based Employees only)

Eligible U.S.-based Temporary/Recurring Employees have access to visit the U.S.-based Disney Theme Parks. Self-Admission privileges allow Temporary/Recurring Employees to visit U.S.-based Disney Theme Parks.

- U.S.-based Temporary/Recurring Employees must be prepared to show their valid Company-issued ID when using their Self-Admission privileges.

Self-Admission privileges only apply at:

- Walt Disney World® Resort Theme Parks: Disney's Animal Kingdom® Theme Park, Disney's Hollywood Studios®, EPCOT®, Magic Kingdom® Park
- Disneyland® Resort Theme Parks: Disney California Adventure® Park, Disneyland® Park

Self-Admission privileges do not apply at:

- Disney Theme Parks based outside of the U.S.
- Disney's Blizzard Beach® Water Park, Disney's Typhoon Lagoon Water Park
- Fantasia Gardens Miniature Golf Course, Disney's Winter Summerland Miniature Golf Course

Restrictions

Eligible Disney Employees must obtain a reservation for theme park entry in advance. However, for Walt Disney World® Resort, select good-to-go dates may not require a park reservation. View information on Disneyworld.com/parkreservations, when available. We encourage you to plan your reservation early. Even after park capacities are no longer limited by the impact of Covid-19 on park operations, there will be particular limits on the number of reservations available for Self-Admission. Self-Admission is subject to block-out dates which may be changed from time to time, and theme park reservations may not be made on blocked-out dates. For a current listing of Disney Theme Park block-out dates, please visit: blockoutdates.disney.com.

- To enter a theme park using Self-Admission, both a park reservation for the particular theme park and day and the Self-Admission Pass or ticket are required. The Self-Admission Pass or ticket that was used to make the theme park reservation must be used for park entry. Disney may elect to suspend, modify or cancel admission privileges of the pass and theme park reservations due to park closures or attendance limitations. Theme park reservations and admission are subject to the terms and conditions and are not guaranteed.
- Self-Admission is only valid during regular park operating hours, and is not valid for events requiring separate admission, including, but not limited to, special events and private parties. Parks, attractions or entertainment may change operating hours, close due to refurbishing, low demand, capacity, weather, special events or other reasons, and may otherwise change or be discontinued without notice and without liability. Certain theme parks, hotels, restaurants and other locations may be limited in capacity and subject to restricted availability or even closure based on guidance from health experts or government officials. Furthermore, certain attractions, experiences, services, offerings and amenities may be modified or unavailable, limited in capacity, and subject to limited availability or even closure. Park admission and offerings are not guaranteed.

- At Walt Disney World® Resort in Florida, after you have made a theme park reservation for the first park you plan to visit and enter that first park, you will be able to visit the next park at a designated time later in the day (as stated on <https://disneyworld.disney.go.com/guest-services/park-hopper/>)
- Self-Admission privileges may not be purchased, sold, used for commercial purposes, bartered or exchanged for anything of value, including but not limited to: cash, gift cards, meals, other theme park tickets, gas, or used as a prize or incentive. Solicitation to engage in such activity is also prohibited. Violations of Self-Admission usage guidelines may result in loss of the privilege as well as disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
- An Employee may not Self-Admit into a Disney Theme Park on a day that such Employee calls in sick or for personal time for their scheduled shift.

One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets (Eligible U.S.-based Employees only)

One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets allow eligible U.S.-based Temporary/Recurring Employees to admit their Guests into eligible Disney Theme Parks.

Privileges

Temporary/Recurring Employees who have worked 150 hours in a calendar year will receive three (3) One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets. An Employee will receive additional tickets after the Employee works a total of 300 hours, and again at a total of 600 hours, up to nine (9) tickets per calendar year.

- The Employee must be actively employed by Disney and be present to accompany their Guests into eligible Disney Theme Parks.
- As long as the Employee is active, the One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets expire on the date printed on each ticket.

Furthermore, certain attractions, experiences, services, offerings and amenities may be modified or unavailable, limited in capacity, and subject to limited availability or even closure. Park admission and offerings are not guaranteed. We reserve the right to cancel any reservations or admission media.
- One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets may not be purchased, sold, used for commercial purposes, bartered, or exchanged for anything of value, including, but not limited to: cash, gift cards, meals, other theme park tickets, gas, or used as a prize or incentive. Solicitation to engage in such activities is also prohibited. Violations of One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Ticket usage guidelines may result in loss of the privilege as well as disciplinary action, up to and including termination.
- All Employees and Guests admitted using One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets and Self-Admission must obey all park signage, instructions, policies, rules and regulations.
- Disney is not responsible for lost or stolen tickets or property.
- Entry constitutes consent for Disney to use any film, video or likeness of bearer for any purpose whatsoever, without payment to the bearer.
- Biometric, photo, or other valid confirmation required for same day readmission to same park, and if applicable, crossover to the other parks.
- Disney is not responsible for any loss or inconvenience caused by computer error, or unauthorized duplication of Disney eTickets. In the event that duplicate Disney eTickets are presented for theme park admission, Disney reserves the right to refuse entry.
- It is agreed between owners of the parks and ticket users that all claims for injury or loss arising incident to presence on owners' property shall be litigated in the state and county where the incident occurred under the law of such state or, if the incident occurred outside of the United States, in the jurisdiction where the incident occurred under the law of such jurisdiction.
- Asking other Employees or offering to assist other Employees in admitting Guest(s) into an eligible Disney Theme Park is strictly prohibited.
- One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets cannot be replaced or reissued if they are lost, misplaced, stolen or if they expire.

- One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets are associated with the active Employee who was issued the ticket. One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets are non-transferable.
- One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets are not valid for admission to the theme parks at Tokyo Disney Resort in Japan.

Guest Accompaniment

After initial entry into an eligible Disney Theme Park, the following Guest(s) who are family members of the Employee (herein after referred to as “Family Member(s)”) and are at least 14 years of age* are able to enjoy the parks unaccompanied by the Employee:

- Grandparents and grandchildren
- Aunts and uncles
- Nieces and nephews
- First cousins

*Guests under the age of 16 must be accompanied by a Guest aged 16 or older to enter the theme parks at Hong Kong Disneyland Park and Shanghai Disneyland Park

*Guests under the age of 12 must be accompanied by a Guest aged 18 or older to enter the theme parks at Disneyland® Paris

Including step, adopted, foster or temporary custody children

- Employees using One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets MUST accompany all Guest(s) not listed above throughout their ENTIRE visit unless the Guest(s) are accompanied by a Family Member.
- All Guest(s) admitted into eligible Disney Theme Parks must have access to a valid form of admission throughout the length of their theme park visit.

Disney Theme Park admission is a privilege that the Company offers to its Employees. Each Employee is solely responsible for using this privilege properly and in accordance with company policy.

Daily Usage

- One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets are valid for one (1) day of Guest admission during regular operating hours to the theme parks at either Disneyland® Resort, OR Walt Disney World® Resort, OR Disneyland® Paris, OR Hong Kong Disneyland Park OR Shanghai Disneyland Park. Eligible Employees receive U.S. based Disney Theme Park Self-Admission privileges and must enter the park with their Guest(s) using a One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Ticket(s).
- Employees may use One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets together on one visit or individually on multiple visits.

- Employees may admit Guests separately throughout the same day using One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets.
- After initial entry, One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets allow your Guests to re-enter the same park or visit multiple parks on the same day.
- Standard ticket and hand stamp or Guest photo or ticket tag confirmation required for same day readmission to same park, and if applicable, crossover to the other parks.
- For re-entry at Shanghai Disneyland Park, proof of identify is required. At the entrance of Shanghai Disneyland Park, a photo of bearer will be taken as proof of the bearer's identity as the ticket holder.
- Employees must be prepared to show a valid Company-issued ID when admitting Guest(s) into an eligible Disney Theme Park.

In Costume

- Employees, while in costume, may utilize their One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets to admit Family Member(s) and/or Guest(s) accompanied by Family Member(s).
- Costumed Employees utilizing their One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets should wear their complete costume (including nametag) but may not accompany their Guest(s) into the park.

Entry

- Employees are not permitted to meet their Guest(s) at Walt Disney World® Resort Main Entrance auto plaza locations. Do not pull over in front of an auto plaza and wait for Guest(s).
- Employees must meet their Guest(s) at the park entrance to admit them into the park. Employees utilizing their One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets must be with Guest(s) for first time entry.
- Guest(s) must be accompanied by the Employee or Family Member (as previously defined in the "Guest Accompaniment" section) at all times.

Parking

- Employees may use their Company-issued ID for complimentary standard parking at U.S.-based Disney Theme Parks.
- Complimentary parking is subject to availability.
- One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets do not provide complimentary parking.
- Employees may not park in designated Cast Member parking areas and/or enter a theme park from any backstage entrances when entering such theme park as a Guest.

- Main Entrance Passes are not valid for admission to the theme parks at Tokyo Disney Resort in Japan, and are not valid for admission to any water parks.
- Main Entrance Passes are subject to the rules, entitlements and procedures of the Complimentary Admission Program in effect from time to time.
- All Retirees and Guests admitted using Complimentary Tickets and Main Entrance Passes must obey all park signage, instructions, policies, rules and regulations.
- Disney is not responsible for lost or stolen tickets or property.
- Entry constitutes consent for Disney to use any film, video or likeness of bearer for any purpose whatsoever, without payment to the bearer.
- Main Entrance Passes and Spouse/Domestic Partner Passes are non-transferable. There are a privilege extended only to the person whose name appears on the pass. Passholders may not, under any circumstances, allow anyone else to use their Main Entrance Pass or Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass.
- Asking other Passholders or offering to assist other Passholders in admitting Guest(s) into an eligible Disney Theme Park is strictly prohibited.
- Standard ticket and hand stamp or Guest photo or ticket tag confirmation required for same day readmission to same park, and if applicable, crossover to the other parks.
- For re-entry at Shanghai Disneyland Park, proof of identity is required. At the entrance of Shanghai Disneyland Park, a photo of bearer will be taken as proof of the bearer's identity as the ticket holder.
- It is agreed between owners of the parks and ticket users that all claims for injury or loss arising incident to presence on owners' property shall be litigated in the state where the incident occurred or, if the incident occurred outside of the United States, in the jurisdiction where the incident occurred.

Guest Accompaniment

After initial entry into an eligible Disney Theme Park, the following Guest(s) who are family members of the Retiree or of the Retiree's spouse/domestic partner (herein after referred to as "Family Member(s)") and are at least 14 years of age* are able to enjoy the parks unaccompanied by the Retiree or Retiree's spouse/domestic partner:

- Children and children-in-law
- Parents and legal guardians

- Parents-in-law
- Siblings and siblings-in-law
- Grandparents and grandchildren
- Aunts and uncles
- Nieces and nephews
- First cousins

*Guests under the age of 16 must be accompanied by a Guest aged 16 or older to enter the theme parks at Hong Kong Disneyland Park and Shanghai Disneyland Park

*Guests under the age of 12 must be accompanied by a Guest aged 18 or older to enter the theme parks at Disneyland® Paris

Including step, adopted, foster or temporary custody children

- Retirees using One-Day Park Hopper® Guest Tickets MUST accompany all Guest(s) not listed above throughout their ENTIRE visit unless the Guest(s) are accompanied by a Family Member.
- All Guest(s) admitted into eligible Disney Theme Parks must have access to a valid form of admission throughout the length of their theme park visit.

Disney Theme Park admission is a privilege that the Company offers to its Retirees. Each Retiree is solely responsible for using this privilege properly and in accordance with company policy.

Daily Usage

- Retirees and spouses/domestic partners admitting multiple Guests into an eligible Disney Theme Park must admit all Guests at the same time.
- Main Entrance Passes may only be used once per day for Guest admission. Passholders and their Guest(s) will be issued readmission tickets.
- Passholders visiting the Walt Disney World® Resort Theme Parks will utilize their reusable Guest Passes for Guest re-entry into the same park or to visit multiple parks on the same day, if applicable.
- Retirees must be prepared to show their Company-issued ID when utilizing a Main Entrance Pass. Spouse/domestic partners must be prepared to show valid government-issued photo ID when utilizing a Main Entrance Pass.

Spouse/ Domestic Partner Pass Privileges

- The spouse/domestic partner may use a Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass to admit Guest(s) into an eligible Disney Theme Park with or without the presence of the Retiree.
- Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass usage counts toward the annual Main Entrance Pass usage.
- The spouse/domestic partner may not self-admit into an eligible Disney Theme Park after the Retiree has already entered the park with Guest(s).

- The Retiree may self-admit into an eligible Disney Theme Park on the same day after the spouse/domestic partner enters with Guest(s).

Entry

- Retirees are not permitted to meet their Guest(s) at Walt Disney World® Resort Main Entrance auto plaza locations. Do not pull over in front of an auto plaza and wait for Guests.
- Retirees must meet their Guest(s) at the park entrance to admit them into the park. Retirees or spouse/domestic partners utilizing their Main Entrance Pass or Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass must be with Guest(s) for first time entry.
- Guest(s) must be accompanied by the Retiree, spouse/domestic partner or eligible Family Member at all times.

Parking

- Retirees may use their Company-issued ID for complimentary standard parking at eligible U.S.-based Disney Theme Parks.
 - Spouse/domestic partners may use their Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass and a valid government-issued photo ID to receive complimentary standard parking.
- Complimentary parking is subject to availability.
- Retirees and spouses/domestic partners may not, under any circumstances, give their pass to Family Members or Guest(s) for complimentary standard parking.
- Retirees may not park in designated Cast Member parking areas and/or enter a theme park from any backstage entrances when entering such theme park as a Guest.

Complimentary Tickets

Eligible Retirees are eligible to receive complimentary theme park tickets. Complimentary tickets are for Retirees' personal use – to admit extra Guest(s) into the theme parks or to give as gifts to family, friends or charitable organizations. Eligible Retirees include Retirees based in the U.S. and Retirees based outside the U.S. who were not statused to Walt Disney Parks & Resorts at time of retirement.

Retiree	Complimentary Tickets
Eligible Retirees	Winter Distribution: 2 tickets

- Each eligible Retiree receives two (2) complimentary tickets once per year.

- Complimentary tickets are valid for one (1) day of admission to the theme parks at either Disneyland® Resort , OR Walt Disney World® Resort, OR Disneyland® Paris, OR Hong Kong Disneyland Park OR Shanghai Disneyland Park.
- Complimentary tickets expire approximately two years from date of issue. The expiration date is printed on each ticket.
- Complimentary tickets are valid for one (1) day of admission which allows your Guests to re-enter the same park or visit multiple parks on the same day. They are not subject to block-out dates.
- At Walt Disney World® Resort in Florida, after you have made a theme park reservation for the first park you plan to visit and enter that first park, you will be able to visit the next park at a designated time later in the day (as stated on <https://disneyworld.disney.go.com/guest-services/park-hopper/>). The ability to visit a park is subject to the park's capacity limitations. At this time a park reservation is not required after the first park, however, reservation requirements are subject to change.
- Park Hopper® privileges at the Disneyland® Resort are subject to restrictions and valid theme park reservations, and are not guaranteed. View details at <https://disneyland.disney.go.com/guest-services/park-hopper/>.
- Complimentary tickets are for the Retiree's personal use - to admit extra Guests into theme parks or to give as gifts to family, friends or charitable organizations. Unless specifically stated to the contrary on the ticket, Retirees do not need to be present when complimentary tickets are used. Note that certain tickets are specifically intended for use by the Retiree and require the Retiree to present a valid Company-issued ID when using the ticket. These select tickets will specifically state this requirement on the ticket.
- Complimentary parking is not offered for those Guest(s) being admitted using complimentary tickets.

Restrictions

The user of Complimentary Tickets must obtain a reservation for theme park entry in advance*. However, for Walt Disney World® Resort, select good-to-go dates may not require a park reservation. View information on Disneyworld.com/parkreservations, when available. We encourage you to plan your reservation early. Even after park capacities are no longer limited by the impact of Covid-19 on park operations, there will be particular limits on the number of reservations available for this ticket type.

- Complimentary tickets are subject to the rules, entitlements and procedures of the Complimentary Admission Program in effect from time to time.
- Disney is not responsible for lost or stolen tickets or property.
- Entry constitutes consent for Disney to use any film, video or likeness of bearer for any purpose whatsoever, without payment to the bearer.
- Standard ticket and hand stamp or Guest photo or ticket tag confirmation required for same day readmission to same park, and if applicable, crossover to the other parks.

- For re-entry at Shanghai Disneyland Park, proof of identity is required. At the entrance of Shanghai Disneyland Park, a photo of bearer will be taken as proof of the bearer's identity as the ticket holder.
- It is agreed between owners of the parks and ticket users that all claims for injury or loss arising incident to presence on owners' property shall be litigated in the state where the incident occurred or, if the incident occurred outside of the United States, in the jurisdiction where the incident occurred.
- Complimentary Ticket use is subject to capacity and other restrictions.
- Complimentary tickets are distributed annually to Retirees each winter via mail.
- To enter a theme park with Complimentary Tickets, both a park reservation* for the particular theme park and day and a valid Complimentary Theme Park Ticket are required (except for Disneyland® Paris where one single reservation is valid for both Disneyland® Park and Walt Disney Studios® Park). The same Complimentary Ticket that was used to make the theme park reservation must be used for park entry. Disney may elect to suspend, modify or cancel admission privileges of the tickets and theme park reservations due to park closures or attendance limitations. Theme park reservations and admission are subject to terms and conditions and are not guaranteed.

Disneyland®* Paris Theme Park reservations for Complimentary Tickets are secured the day of visit at a Guest Relations window. Guest Relations will secure your Disneyland® Paris theme park reservation for the day and provide a ticket for theme park entry.

- Complimentary ticket users must obtain a reservation for theme park entry in advance.
- Complimentary Tickets may not be purchased, sold, used for commercial purposes, bartered or exchanged for anything of value, including, but not limited to: cash, gift cards, meals, other theme park tickets, gas, or used as a prize or incentive. Solicitation to engage in such activities is also prohibited. Retirees will be held responsible if their tickets are altered or sold, even if they were given to another individual who altered or sold them. Violations of Complimentary Ticket usage guidelines may result in loss of the privilege.
- Complimentary tickets are only valid during regular park operating hours, and are not valid for events requiring separate admission, including, but not limited to special events and private parties. Parks, attractions or entertainment may change operating hours, close due to refurbishing, low demand, capacity, weather, special events or other reasons, and may otherwise change or be discontinued without notice and without liability. Certain theme parks, hotels, restaurants and other locations may be limited in capacity and subject to restricted availability or even closure based on guidance from health experts or government officials. Furthermore, certain attractions, experiences, services, offerings, and amenities may be modified, or unavailable, limited in capacity and subject to limited availability or even closure. Park admission and offerings are not guaranteed. We reserve the right to cancel any reservations or admission media.
- Complimentary tickets cannot be replaced or reissued should they be lost, misplaced stolen or expired.

- Complimentary tickets are not valid for admission to the theme parks at Tokyo Disney Resort in Japan, or for admission to any water parks.

Complimentary Theme Park Merchandise Discounts

Eligible Retirees receive a complimentary theme park merchandise discount at all participating U.S.-based merchandise locations that are owned and operated by Walt Disney Parks and Resorts, Disney Store, shopDisney, and Disney Cruise Line. - Retirees must present their Company-issued ID at time of transaction to receive their complimentary theme park merchandise discount.
- Eligible spouses/domestic partners must present a valid Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass and government-issued photo ID in order to receive their complimentary theme park merchandise discount.
- Complimentary theme park merchandise discount may also be applied to purchases made on shopDisney mobile app and shopDisney online at shopDisney.com. For the discount to be applied, you must create an account and provide your PERNR number.

Restrictions

- Main Entrance Guest Passes and complimentary tickets cannot be honored for discounts.
- Retirees or their spouse/domestic partners may not extend their complimentary theme park merchandise discount to others, including other Employees who receive different discounts. Asking another Employee and/or their spouse domestic partners to extend a higher discount is also prohibited. Spouses/domestic partners receive the same discount as the Retiree with their Spouse/Domestic Partner Pass.
- Complimentary theme park merchandise discounts are for Retirees' and their spouses'/ domestic partners' personal use only and may not be used to purchase theme park merchandise with the intent to resell, or to actually resell, for profit.
- Complimentary theme park merchandise discounts are subject to change at any time.
- If a Retiree qualifies for two separate discounts for percentage off a purchase, the higher percentage discount may be applied to the purchase but multiple percentage discounts may not be combined.
- Some theme park merchandise offerings, including media (e.g., Blu-Ray, DVDs, CDs), have a lower standard discount. A higher discount may be also offered on select items or during select seasonal periods (e.g. Disney Family Holiday Celebration).

- Complimentary theme park merchandise discounts, as applicable, are not valid on: artist originals, select collectibles, gift cards, gift certificates, admission media, arcades, shipping or taxes, and on additional items or at other locations that may not be noted here.
- Retiree complimentary theme park merchandise discounts are limited to $8,000 annually. This limit applies to the total merchandise discount amount received, and does not apply to resort reservations, theme park tickets or purchases made at food and beverage locations. This applies to all Retirees, regardless of the merchandise discount they receive. This is a single limit inclusive of purchases made by both the Retiree and spouse/domestic partner.
